GROWING TOGETHER, LEARNING FOREVER
"A Campus Alberta Central Learning Site"

AFTERNOON AT THE MOVIES –

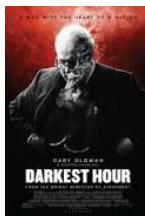

The Darkest Hour

Within days of becoming Prime Minister of Great Britain, Winston Churchill must face one of his most turbulent and defining trials: exploring a negotiated peace treaty with Nazi Germany, or standing firm to fight for the ideals, liberty and freedom of a nation. As the unstoppable Nazi forces roll across Western Europe and the threat of invasion is imminent, and with an unprepared public, a skeptical King, and his own party plotting against him, Churchill must withstand his darkest hour, rally a nation, and attempt to change the course of world history.

NEWS – April 2018

GREAT BOOKS TO READ WHILE YOU ARE WAITING FOR SPRING!

OWL DIARIES-EVA'S TREETOP FESTIVAL

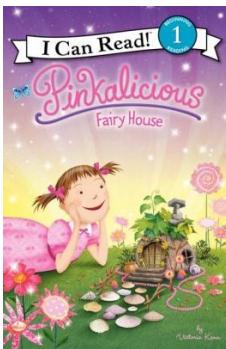

FESTIVAL

by Rebecca Elliott

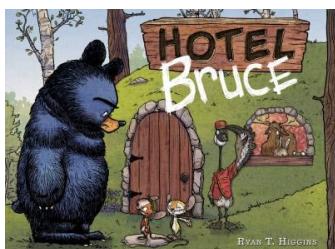

Having a Bloomtastic Festival at school to celebrate spring is a great idea--but Eva Wingdale, a young owl, discovers that it is also a lot of work, and there is nothing wrong with asking her friends for help. Juvenile fiction.

PINKALICIOUS-FAIRY HOUSE* by Victoria Kann

Every spring, Pinkalicious loves to see all of the beautiful flowers and blossoming trees come to life in her family's garden. Of course, pinkalicious knows that the blooming garden is all because of the hard work of the fairies! This year, Pinkalicious wants to be ready for the fairies' arrival, so she makes a cozy house for the fairies to stay in during their visit. Peter and Pinkalicious camp out in the backyard, waiting for the fairies to appear--but will they be able to see them? Beginning reader.

HOTEL BRUCE* by Ryan T. Higgins

A reluctant mother to four young geese, grumpy Bruce the bear loses his temper when he migrates home in the spring only to discover that mice have converted his den into a hotel. Early reader.

SPLINTERED* by A. G. Howard

A descendant of the inspiration for Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, sixteen-year-old Alyssa Gardner fears she is mentally ill like her mother until she finds that Wonderland is real and, if she passes a series of tests to fix Alice's mistakes, she may save her family from their curse. Young adult fiction.

SPRING FEVER* by Mary Kay Andrews

Annajane Hudgens truly believes she is over her ex-husband, Mason Bayless. They've been divorced for four years, she's engaged to a new, terrific guy, and she's ready to leave the small town where she and Mason had so much history. She is so over Mason that she has absolutely no problem attending his wedding to the beautiful, intelligent, delightful Celia. But when fate intervenes and the wedding is called to a halt as the bride is literally walking down the aisle, Annajane begins to realize that maybe she's been given a second chance. Maybe everything happens for a reason. And maybe, just maybe, she wants Mason back. But there are secrets afoot in this small southern town. On the peaceful surface of Hideaway Lake, Annajane discovers that the past is never really gone. Even if there are people determined to keep Annajane from getting what she wants, happiness might be hers for the taking, and the life she once had with Mason in this sleepy lake town might be in her future. Adult fiction.

GARDENING UNDER THE ARCH* by the Millarville Horticultural Club

Millarville Horticultural Club

Gardening under the arch : homespun hints and money-saving tips from the rigorous high country of Alberta's Chinook zone / Millarville Horticultural Club ; [edited by Corina Skavberg, Joe Wilderson, and SKB ; all interior photos and line drawings provided by members of the Millarville Horticultural Club. Adult non-fiction.

DREAM BACKYARDS

by Reader's Digest

From water gardens to decks to patios and paths, Dream Backyards--from the editors of The Family Handyman magazine--presents stylistic concepts and hundreds of full-color photos--plus at-a-glance information on skill levels, tools needed, and approximate project costs. Adult non-fiction.
